Classic Car Show at Tervis Tumbler Store Raises $1,500 for Operation Uplink

North Venice, FL – The 2nd Annual Antique Car, Truck, and Bike Benefit Show, held last month on the grounds of the Tervis Tumbler Factory Store, was about much more than just classics and hot rods. The special event was also a benefit for Operation Uplink, a non-profit program that provides free cell phone cards to active duty military. Through registration fees, silent auction proceeds, 50/50 drawings and additional donations, the show raised $1,500 for the cause.

“What a great success your event was,” said Linda Ferguson, VFW Operation Uplink Manager. “Your donation will help connect several hundred military with family and friends.”

“We were pleased to host over 100 vintage cars and trucks, as well as hundreds of spectators who stopped throughout the day,” said Scott Spencer, Classics, Antiques, and Rods Association (KARA). The Tervis Store’s prominent location on US 41 in Osprey, said Spencer, was ideal, as many attendees were able to shop for tumblers as they browsed the automobiles.
